CHAIR REPORT

The 2018 NRL Season will show that the Bulldogs finished 12th on the ladder - not a good result based on the standards of this club, but in our first year as a Board, we believe it was, nonetheless, a crucial year for the club as we look to re-establish the Bulldogs as a benchmark Club in the game.

The foundations were laid for reviving the much loved and successful Family Club Culture – The Bulldogs Way. Fans, ex-players and community stakeholders were united around this during the 2018 FC election campaign and core to that was bringing respect back to all parts of our club. I'm proud to say I believe we did that in many areas, though we admit there is much more to be done.

We identified 9 key areas that needed attention. The extent of some of these challenges have meant we are still working through that list, but I believe we have made good headway in most areas, particularly in the key area of football, including junior league, recruitment and retention.

Key areas that we have addressed:

Des Hasler Contract

We promised to address the outstanding contractual dispute between the club and Des Hasler as a matter of urgency, and we did this, bringing the matter to a close in early May. I believe we reached the right agreement, one that showed respect to both the Club and Des, and most importantly, was the right thing to do. As a club we need to show that we will always behave with integrity.

Salary Cap 2018/19

It is well known that we inherited some major challenges around the Salary Cap that were going to affect coming seasons. The Club acted swiftly, but strategically, once the full extent of the problems were known. It is never easy to have players leave our club, but tough decisions needed to be made and I believe that we managed the situation well, showing those players dignity and respect.

Football/High Performance

One positive out of the difficult situation with the salary cap regarding mid-year movement was the emergence of some stars of the future. Young players took their chances with both hands. This is very much a Bulldogs philosophy and a way of operating that has been successful in the past and is how we need to move forward as a club. We also take great heart in the performance of our lower grades, in particular our Intrust Super Premiership side who won the Grand Final and the Interstate Challenge against the Redcliffe Dolphins. All these sides will benefit next season with the addition of former Kangaroo Strength and Conditioning Coach Tony Ayoub, as our new Manager of High Performance, plus the appointment of Yvette Davey as Player Engagement Coordinator, who will focus on the well-being of players, wives and families within our Top 30 Squad.

I also firmly believe we have taken major steps towards rectifying the neglect of our recruitment and retention in recent years, both in our own backyard and beyond. The starting point for this was the appointment of Nathan Mairleitner as the new Competition Manager for all of our local junior rugby league. This is an area that is crucial if we are to get back to bringing our best young players through the local system. To strengthen our recruitment we added a former Bulldog in Mark Hughes to find the best young talent around and to work alongside the experienced Warren McDonnell.

We also identified a need to improve the overall Governance of the Club and we have made good progress on this front. We have established Sub Committees for Football, Business Development, Finance, Audit and Risk. In addition, we have two Working Groups for Junior League and Constitution Review. All Sub Committees have Charters and a Director overseeing them, bringing back recommendations to the Board for review and final decision.

We will adopt 'best practice' in all of our operations as a Board.

As part of that we have introduced an Independent Audit and Risk member to the FRAC, as well as adopting key Risk Governance practices as a regular part of both Management and Board operations.

The Board also conducted a Strategic Planning Workshop which provided key direction and guidance to Management as they developed the 'Future Strategy' for the Club. Beyond developing a winning football team across all competitions, key to this is the reinvigoration of the Bulldogs Brand and having our family culture at the centre of everything we do.

I am very proud to say that we are bringing our club back together. As with any family, there will be disagreements along the way, but we should never lose sight of the shared history and contributions our people have made over the years. In particular, the Board was unanimous in our actions to extend an apology to Garry Hughes and his family over his departure from the club in 2004. The reaction we have seen from this tells us that we are absolutely on the right path with an overwhelming show of support for this decision.

In line with our intent to acknowledge all stakeholders of our great club, we also made a commitment to our members around engaging you and informing you on all key issues immediately. We aimed to deliver all news to you first and we believe that this has been honoured.

This is embedded in what we do as a matter of practice. At times this can be difficult when it involves matters of privacy and contractual negotiations, however, as soon as we are in a position to officially release information, you as members and fans will be the first to know.

Despite the positive work outlined above we know there is much more to do, and we do not shy away from that. I was delighted with the way the players responded to what happened in the post season, however they have accepted that the behaviours are not what we expect from our people and is not what is expected at a professional sporting club in 2018. We want to be able to look back in pride on everything we do and say as a club, even when inevitably the results are not what we want at times.

This Club needs to stand strong and proud. We need to show respect to earn respect. That is our goal. That will be our determining standard.

Thank you to all our members and fans – your support in 2018 was important to us and we are very grateful for this, especially in tough times. We hope you see that we are building towards something special, and that there will be just reward for being true Bulldogs supporters.

I Look forward to seeing you all again in 2019.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE REPORT

Seasons like this are tough. They test your mental strength, as well as your determination to learn from them.

There is no doubt that we as a club have to make sure that we take the lessons from this year and turn them into positives for next season. What happened at the end of the season overshadowed what had been a great end to the year for the club.

We have learnt from that and put in place changes to make sure that it doesn't happen again.

If we are to return to being one of the great clubs in the competition we need to make sure that everything that we do is of the highest standard, on and off the field.

To do that we need to improve in all areas and make our fans proud, because at the end of the day they are the most important people at our club.

On the field there was no doubt that the effort was there every week. We lost eight games by less than 6 points and if we had been able to capture some of those games the outcome could have been significantly different.

The fact is that those are the small margins between victory and defeat in today's NRL.

What I do know is that Dean, his support staff and players, always gave a great effort on behalf of the club.

We now need to build on that next season and convert those close losses into wins and find a way to create the momentum that is crucial in any season.

In terms of the season experienced by our other sides, it was a great success that offers tremendous hope for the future.

Our Intrust Super Premiership side were outstanding, winning both the ISP Premiership and then backing it up a week later with victory in the State Challenge against the Redcliffe Dolphins from Queensland before the NRL Grand Final at ANZ Stadium.

There were also strong performances at lower age levels, with our SG Ball team making the Grand Final, while our Jersey Flegg and Harold Matthews sides both made their respective Finals Series. We are also pleased to report the development of our Women's teams with both the Harvey Norman and Tarsha Gale sides now being fully established as part of the Bulldogs family.

It is also important to acknowledge the contribution of those players that are departing the club this season and to thank them for their efforts during their time here.

To Aaron Woods, Moses Mbye, Clay Priest, Asipeli Fine, Matt Frawley, Brett Morris, Greg Eastwood, Josh Morris and David Klemmer, a sincere thank you on behalf of the club and also our commitment that you are always welcome back at Belmore as part of the Bulldogs family.

As one year ends it is already time to look forward to what lies ahead.

The Bulldogs have welcomed a number of new players into the squad for next season and we look forward to what each of them will bring to the club. To Nick Meaney, Jack Cogger, Christian Crichton, Sauaso Sue, Corey Harawira-Naera and Dylan Napa we look forward to you becoming part of the Bulldog family.

We have also made a number of additions in our Football Department with Gareth Holmes joining us as General Manager – Football, while Tony Ayoub returns to the club as High Performance Manager. In addition, we also welcome Steve James as our new Skills Coach and Yvette Davey into the role of Player Engagement Co-Ordinator .

As we have stated it is our aim to return to traditional Bulldog ways.

As part of that endeavour we have focussed on producing local junior talent and also finding the best young players around the country who we can identify and bring to the club.

As part of our new commitment to the local area we appointed Nathan Mairleitner as our new Manager of the Junior League last season and welcomed back club stalwart Mark Hughes to join Warren McDonald in our Recruitment area.

We look forward to seeing the benefit of these initiatives in the coming years.

Id like to finish by thanking all of our members and fans and acknowledging on behalf of the club our deep gratitude for your continued support.

I know that everyone at the club is excited about what lies ahead next season.

2018 NRL SEASON REVIEW

The 2018 NRL season saw a combination of some frustrating losses complemented by a strong finish to the campaign that gave great hope for the future with the emergence of some promising young talent.

The major additions of Aaron Woods and Kieran Foran to the Bulldogs side offered great interest moving into the season, but a series of early losses by close margins meant that the team were always fighting to break into the semi-final race.

At this stage two major decisions were taken to allow Moses Mbye (Tigers) and Aaron Woods (Sharks) to move on to other clubs as part of a strategy to create more flexibility around the salary cap moving forward.

This also created a number of opportunities for younger players to make a step up to senior level, resulting in Lachlan Lewis, Rhyse Martin, Ofahiki Ogden and Renouf To'omaga all making their NRL debuts, while Clay Priest, Nu Brown, John Olive, Chris Smith and Jeremy Marshall-King started for the first time in the top grade for the Bulldogs.

This seemed to free the team up to play its best football of the season, winning four of the last six matches to finish the year on a high note.

A final position of 12th on the ladder seemed like a case of what could have been had some of those close losses been turned into victories.

David Klemmer led by example on the field running for 3980 metres for the season at an average of 181m per game. His season included being part of a winning Australian World Cup side and a successful Blues State of Origin campaign and he was named the Bulldogs Player of the Year at the club Presentation Night.

David decided to move on at the end of the season and the club would like to thank him for his efforts and wish him and his family the best of luck for the future.

New skipper Josh Jackson was at his consistent best throughout the season, averaging 34.6 tackles per game and picking up the Bulldogs Coaches Award for his efforts.

Of the younger players Lachlan Lewis showed outstanding composure after coming into the side for the Round 16 clash with Newcastle, while Rhyse Martin impressed everyone with his skills and goal kicking, finishing the year with 36 goals from 38 attempts.

It was also a sad time as the club said goodbye to a number of players. Clay Priest and Asipeli Fine, had both contributed in First Grade throughout the season, while Matt Frawley and Brett Morris were to move on after both spending four years with the club. It was also farewell to hard running forward Greg Eastwood who had put so much into his time at Belmore during his nine years with the club.

Then there was Josh Morris. A ten year career with any club shows both consistency and loyalty and J-Moz was one of the best centres in the League during that period. It was fitting that he registered 100 tries for the Bulldogs during the season to join an elite list.

With Dylan Napa, Corey Harawira-Naera, Sauaso Sue, Nick Meaney, Jack Cogger, Christian Crichton and James Roumanos joining the club next season it is a time to look to the future and new beginnings.

2018 INTRUST SUPER PREMIERSHIP SEASON REVIEW

An incredible season for the Intrust Super Premiership team saw them become Premiers after a pulsating 18 to 12 win over the Newtown Jets in front of close to 9000 fans at Leichhardt Oval.

The Premiership was the club's 12th in this Grade and the first since 2011.

Of the many positives to come out of the year, the one that stands out was the never-say-die attitude of the team in many close matches.

After a strong end to the season, where they won six of their last seven matches to finish fourth on the ladder, the team suffered an immediate setback after going down 28-18 to the Panthers in the first week of the Finals. This only galvanised the side, however, with two nerve jangling wins over the Wyong Roos (34-24) and St George (28-26), setting up a showdown with old rivals the Newtown Jets at a packed Leichhardt Oval to decide the Premiership.

In a game that had everything the Bulldogs recovered from an early 10-0 nil deficit to score just before half time through Nu Brown and set up a nail-biting second half. With momentum shifting both ways it was left to outstanding young centre Morgan Harper to make a one on one steal with ten minutes to go to score in the corner. A Rhyse Martin penalty goal close to full time sealed the match and created history for a group of players that were a credit to the club.

There were so many success stories from the year.

Coach Steve Georgallis steered the ship superbly, bringing his vast experience to bear over a talented group of players, while several of the team benefitted from making their NRL debuts during the season. Renouf To'omaga, Lachlan Lewis, Rhyse Martin and Ofahiki Ogden all tasted First Grade football at some stage and brought that experience back to the Intrust arena.

The win was the result of great teamwork with Asipeli Fine, Josh Cleeland, Lachie Burr, Francis Tualau, Mason Cerruto and Josh Bergamin all playing major roles throughout the year.

Others with NRL experience played their part at vital stages with Matt Frawley, Nu Brown, John Olive, Clay Priest, Reimis Smith and Chris Smith all being major contributors and it was testament to the depth of the squad that they were able to overcome severe injuries to Frawley, Fine and Priest that caused them to miss the Grand Final.

The Finals also saw an outstanding performance from Zac Woolford as he took out Man of the Match honours in the Jets clash, while the emergence of exciting young centre Morgan Harper was great news for the Bulldogs moving forward.

Lachlan Burr was named Intrust Super Premiership Player of the Year at the club's Presentation Night.

By winning the Grand Final the team qualified for an interstate match-up with the Queensland Premiers the Redcliffe Dolphins at ANZ Stadium on Grand Final day and they finished the season in style defeating them by 42-18.

2018 JERSEY FLEGG SEASON REVIEW

An excellent year for the Bulldogs Jersey Flegg side under coach Brad Henderson, saw the team make their way through to the second week of the Finals, before eventually bowing out to the Sharks, 30 points to 10.

The end of the competition rounds saw the team finish in 7th position. There were many outstanding performances throughout the season, but away wins against Penrith in Round Six (24-4) and a last round win over Parramatta (30-18), were genuine highlights. Last minute losses to the Sharks (16-18), Knights (16-18) and Panthers (8-10), cost the team a top four finishing spot, yet the make-up of the side offers much hope for the future.

24 of the 36 contracted players to the Jersey Flegg roster were first year players meaning that the side will have learnt a great deal during the year and can come back stronger next season.

Defence was the real strength of the side with statistics showing that the team were the second best in the League in terms of conceding tries (63), behind Penrith (59), mainly due to the high ranking achieved in fewest missed tackles and line breaks.

In terms of attack the effort and discipline was exceptional, although the average of scoring less than four tries per game, meant that many of the matches were arm wrestles that required an attritional approach to wearing the opposition down.

What this did, however, was to give the team a chance of staying in every game that they played in through the competitive streak that they had developed.

Individually there were some strong performers throughout the season with Kayne Kalache being a deserved Player of the Year. Kayne, was the standout 'go forward' big man, averaging 130 metres per game and forming strong combinations with Blake Clayton and Brandon Wakeham. Kayne's performances with Elie El-Zackem and Sam Radovu, also set a great standard for the rest of the team to follow.

Others to perform strongly were Dalton Smith, whose line running was excellent, despite being limited to ten games for the season, while Brandon Wakeham was extremely consistent, finishing with 17 try assists and 21 line breaks. He was rewarded for his performances with two appearances in the ISP side.

Others to stand out included Javier Pitovao, Blake Clayton, Frank Kuresa, Alex Seve, Peni Teaupua and Sua Aiiloilo.

A season to build on and with so many players returning next year it offers great optimism for the future.

2018 HAROLD MATTHEWS REPORT

The side used 24 out of 26 local juniors over the course of the season, once again highlighting the depth of our junior league.

The season started well with a win over the Sydney Roosters, but three straight losses to the Sharks, Manly (Premiers) and Tigers left the team at a crossroads. The squad were largely playing as individuals with no fluency as a team. In summary they were playing like a Junior League team waiting for someone else to make a big play.

The talent was there and a solid win over the Central Coast gave the boys some belief and the challenge of facing a strong Penrith team at Belmore in Round 6 brought the best out of the boys. Teamwork had finally sunk in and the ability of the individual to better understand his role within the team structure saw a great 34-28 victory with the team going through the remainder of the regular season undefeated.

Included in the string of triumphs was another great win at Belmore over a strong Parramatta Eels side.

The team finished the regular season in 5th position and met the Illawarra Steelers in their first final. Down 28-4, a week one final exit loomed, but the boys came out in the second half and played some scintillating rugby league to record an outstanding 32-28 victory.

Finals Week Two saw the boys meet the strong Penrith Panthers at Leichhardt Oval and the game was a hurdle too far. The massive Penrith side dominated in the middle and weakened with a number of injuries to front rowers, the Bulldogs could not match it with the Panthers.

The season had ended but not the pride in performance. There were many outstanding players and the hope is that many of these continue to develop through our pathways program in the years ahead.

There were a number of standout performers throughout the season culminating in the selection of Danny Ghantous (hooker), Diego-Bravo Graham (Centre) and Compton Fuitimau (Centre) in the NSW Under 16 Train on Squad.

The Harold Matthews Cup Player of the Year was Danny Ghantous. Danny is a young hooker who plays for the Bankstown Sports Junior Rugby League Club. Danny was identified some 18 months ago whilst coming through the Under 15 Development Program and gained selection in the Bulldogs Youth High Performance Program. Danny's main attributes are his speed, skill, humility and willingness to learn.

The side was coached by Charbel Khoury. Charbel works incredibly hard for the development program and together with assistant coach Pierre Tabet, created a wonderful learning environment for the players. The efforts of the whole coaching and support staff (all of whom are products of the Bulldogs Junior Rugby League) are much appreciated.

2018 SG BALL REPORT

Joe Saukuru was appointed as Head Coach in 2018 and together with Assistant Coach Wille Talau, the squad worked incredibly hard through pre-season to prepare for the 2018 SG Ball competition.

When the final cut was made, the squad consisted of 25 out of 27 players who had come through our 2017 Development Program. Of that squad, 9 players were still only seventeen and eligible for SG Ball in 2019.

Expectations at our club are always high, but the reality was that this was a youngish team by SG Ball standards.

The squad kicked off the 2018 SG Ball Cup season with consecutive losses to the Roosters and Sharks. Whilst competitive in both games, the performances suggested that the season would be defined by progression rather than results or any expectation.

The achievements of the SG Ball team after Round 2 was nothing short of remarkable. They overcame all hurdles put before them to play some amazing football and won 9 out of their next 10 games to reach the SG Ball Grand Final.

The side was hit hard by injuries with Michael Fahd and Mateo Tatola suffering season ending ACL injuries and the weekly battles meant there were often barely 18 players available most weeks to play. This did not deter the squad and staff continuing to work diligently at training. On the back of hard work and mateship - confidence flourished.

This squad grew in belief and the boys played for each other. Along the way they played superb rugby league. The Round 8 victory over Parramatta at Belmore will be long remembered by those close to the development program. The score line read 60-4. The quality and control of the performance suggested maybe 80 or 90 was a better reflection.

The side completed the regular season in 5th position and met the Illawarra Steelers in the first final. Another dominant performance realised a 56-12 victory.

Finals week 2 saw a clash with the Sydney Roosters and in a tight game the Bulldogs prevailed 26-24.

The boys moved to the Grand Final Qualifier against Newcastle at St Marys Stadium and in a great game of rugby league, fought out a tough 32-28 victory.

The Bulldogs SG Ball side had reached the Grand Final against the Penrith Panthers and whilst the score line showed a 25-14 loss, it did not reflect the game. The Bulldogs led 14-10 at half time and gave their all. This young team embodied everything good about the Bulldogs and every player and staff member should be proud of their efforts.

Week 2	Roosters	Leichhardt Oval	Won	24-26
Week 3	Knights	St Marys Stadium	Won	28-32
GF	Panthers	Leichhardt Oval	Lost	25-14

As important as results are, the success of this team will ultimately be measured in term of development. Focus on the pathway and development program now turns to creating systems and opportunities to allow these boys to further develop and progress.

The boys eligible for SG Ball in 2019 turn their attention to Under 17 development in winter, whilst some players who are too old will train with our Jersey Flegg side over the next 3-4 months in an attempt to push into the next stage of their development – gaining selection in the Jersey Flegg squad in 2019.

The 2018 SG Ball Cup side was littered with standout performers, but special mention must go to Ryan Gray (hooker), Tyrone Harding (fullback) and Kurt Picken (Centre) who gained selection in the NSW Under 18 Train on Squad.

The SG Ball Cup Player of the Year was Tommy Talau. Tommy is a five-eighth, who plays for the Moorebank Rams Junior Rugby League Club. Tommy has been in the Junior Rep program for 4 years, as well as coming through the Bulldogs Youth High Performance Program.

Coach Joe Saukuru in his first year as a Head Coach did a magnificent job in the role.

2018 HARVEY NORMAN WOMEN'S REPORT

Despite limited preparation for the initial Harvey Norman Competition, the team got off to a great start with a win over Wentworthville. This was quickly tempered, however, with a heavy loss to an experienced South Sydney side, that resulted in long term injuries to three of our players.

Throughout the season the team showed great effort, losing four games by only 6 points or less. Unfortunately, a period of playing only two games in seven weeks during the Representative period created a loss of momentum at the wrong time. Despite this a strong showing at season's end saw a draw with South Sydney and wins over Newcastle and Cabramatta, creating plenty of optimism for next year.

The highlight of the season was in player development.

Many of the girls had not played 13-a-side rugby league before, so it was fantastic to see Joy Tedschi and Sinead Sio progress from the Tarsha Gale Cup side to play important roles.

Elianna Walton led the side and offered these young athletes guidance through her experience as a Jillaroo. Her ability to mentor was an immense asset and a vital part of the progression of the team.

A big thank you to everyone involved with the team throughout the year and I know that everyone is already looking forward to next season.

2018 TARSHA GALE REPORT

The Tarsha Gale Cup season was defined not so much by results on the field, but rather the rugby league development of the team and the willingness to continue to learn. For many in this team, Rugby League is a new sport and while some players had touch football and oz tag backgrounds, few had experience in tackling or being tackled.

Coming off the field smiling and having fun meant the season was a success. The girls were given opportunities through careers and welfare workshops to develop off the field as well. Special mention to our careers coach Rene Robson for her assistance in the off-field programs.

The highlight for the year was a 44-20 victory over semi-finalists South Sydney at Redfern Oval. The girls were outstanding that day and really showed how far they had developed over the months together. Another success was the development of Alysha Janssen in the role of Head Coach.

Alysha came to the Bulldogs with limited coaching experience and worked extremely hard on her development in this role. She was the only female coach in the competition and with further coaching development, the future is bright for Alysha.

The efforts of not only Alysha but all her staff are to be commended and they worked really hard on creating a learning environment. After six months together, one thing is for certain, the girls individually progressed and moved forward as women rugby league players.

Joy Tedeschi has been given an opportunity to join the Harvey Normans Women's open age team and now that the Bulldogs have an open age team to aspire to, a rugby league career path is now a reality, giving 18 year old girls a vision beyond Tarsha Gale Cup.

7	Rabbitohs	Redfern Oval	Won	20-44
8	Eels	Belmore Sports Ground	Lost	12-22
9	Raiders	Belmore Sports Ground	Lost	26-40

The Tarsha Gale Cup Player of the Year was Stephanie Ball. Stephanie played a lot from dummy half and worked extremely hard at training and during matches.

Women's Rugby League is still in its infancy. Growth is occurring in the Canterbury-Bankstown district with approximately 60 girls registered in the Under 16 age groups. Tarsha Gale Cup now gives these girls an under 18 competition to aspire to.

2018 JUNIOR LEAGUE REPORT

Season 2018 was one of consolidation and change for the Canterbury-Bankstown District Junior Rugby League (CBDJRL), building on the initiatives and changes made to the competition from previous management. Overall the season was a successful one for all clubs and participants within the competition.

The Junior League staff along with NRL Game Development, provided great support to the junior league and surrounding areas of the district in 2018.

To our ILO's, your commitment and dedication to the district is just as important as our office staff and your contribution has been priceless and greatly appreciated.

2018 highlights included our Grand Finalist SG Ball squad. The Bulldogs were runners up to the Panthers in a very close and competitive Grand Final.

Several players were rewarded with an experience in Jersey Flegg throughout the 2019 season and local junior Ryan Gray had a successful season being named in the NSW U18 origin and represented the Australian Schoolboys.

The implementation of League Tag, a non-contact form of Rugby League, was a huge success and will only grow in the coming years.

2018 GAME DAY REVIEW

The 2018 season saw the Bulldogs continue to enhance and build on the game day experience of the “Family Fun Zone”. This focused approach delivers a benchmark experience that provides engagement and entertainment for our members and fans. This ‘Zone’ emphasises the core values of being the Family club.

Thursday and Friday night scheduling prevented the implementation of the outdoor family zone in the first half of the season, however, this meant we were able to highlight the new interactive entrance banners and the newly branded Club 18 to our members.

Moving activations onto the concourse provided our members and fans a first taste of the Bulldogs brand before entering into the seating area of the stadium.

Our first chance to showcase the enhanced “Family Zone” came on the Round 14 Queen’s Birthday Long Weekend, the first time we have had this fixture.

This zone had a VR experience from KIA, inflatables for kids of varying ages, face painting, giveaways, fairy floss and an interactive dance school.

The highlight of the 2018 game day experience was the KIA car giveaway which saw the Bulldogs offer a brand new KIA Picanto to one lucky winner during the final home match of the season against the Cronulla Sharks at ANZ Stadium.

2018 MERCHANDISE REVIEW

The newly renovated Bulldog Belmore opened in mid November 2017. The refurbishment of the Team Store created a retail space that focused entirely on Bulldogs Branded Merchandise.

Part of the new design incorporated a Personalization Station, which allows fans and members to customize their jerseys with letters and numbers to show their support for their favourite player. 100% of the profits of merchandise sales from the Team Store stay with the Club.

Along with the new Bulldogs playing kit, the 'Supporter Merchandise' range expanded. This apparel range allowed consumers a mid-price merchandise selection which had previously been missing from the market.

The Bulldogs Online Store delivered a range of Bulldogs Merchandise to over 15 countries and all states across Australia. A new delivery option was also introduced to the Online store where purchases could be picked up on Game Day.

To maximise merchandise sales, Bulldogs merchandise was available at all Bulldogs Home games and at eight away games utilising the Bulldogs Merchandise Van.

The Merchandise department also worked with the Corporate, Community and Membership Departments to maximise the use of the Bulldog Van. The Bulldog Van activated at Community, Corporate and Members events. The use of the Bulldogs Van also generates brand exposure across the entire business.

Our second Indigenous Jersey was well received by members and fans. This positive response was reflected in the online jersey auction results. These results raised a large amount of money that went back into the community.

2018 CORPORATE PROGRAM

The 2018 season saw the Bulldogs Corporate Program continue to grow and provide measurable returns for their valued clients.

Ladbrokes, Metro Petroleum and My Muscle Chef were great additions to the sponsorship family. Ladbrokes were in their first of a 3 year sponsorship as the Bulldogs lower back apparel sponsor. The Club is looking forward to working with these brands in 2019 as part of the overall sponsorship family.

Major Partner of the Bulldogs and Principal Partner of the Bulldogs Community Program, KIA, enjoyed their second year of a 3 year deal. We will continue to work collaboratively with the KIA team over the 2019 season.

M&J Chickens remained on the sleeve in 2018.

The Corporate Partnership program went from strength to strength in season 2018. Events across the 3 State Of Origins were a great success.

This coupled with 2 Grand Final events, Grand Final week Friday at Bankstown Sports (450pax) and Grand Final Sunday, pre-game at Waterview (200pax). These events continue to be a valuable asset to the Corporate Program and provide our devoted sponsors, corporate partners and supporters access and exposure to the Bulldogs inner sanctum.

2018 signals the end of our partnership with apparel partner Canterbury International Australia (CCC). We would like to thank them for their service of the past 8 seasons.

The Corporate Team will continue to collaborate with our key partners to deliver successful campaigns.

We would like to thank all departments for their continued support of the Corporate Program. This support allows us to provide a professional service that delivers quality outcomes for our valued corporate partners and sponsors.

We look forward to an exciting, successful 2019 season.

(e) Going concern

The financial statements of the Company and its controlled entity have been prepared on the going concern basis of accounting, which assumes the continuity of normal business activities and the realisation of assets and settlement of liabilities in the ordinary course of business.

(i) Company

The Company has reported a net working capital deficiency of $2,386,598 (2017: $781,414) as 31 October 2018. Notwithstanding the above, the directors believe the going concern assumption is appropriate given:

- The Canterbury League Club Limited has committed grant funding to the Company (including Canterbury Bankstown Junior District Rugby League, community funding and other commercial arrangements) for the year ending 31 October 2019 of $5,800,000;

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

• In addition to the committed funding above, the Canterbury League Club Limited has undertaken to continue to provide such financial and other support as necessary (including grants or loans) to the Company for at least the next twelve months from the date of approval of the Company's financial statements for the year ended 31 October 2018 to enable the Company to continue to trade and to meet its financial obligations and be able to pay its debts as and when they become due and payable.

After considering the above, the directors consider that the Company will be able to continue to fulfil all obligations as and when they fall due for the foreseeable future, being at least one year from the date of approval of these financial statements, and accordingly, that the Company's financial statements should be prepared on a going concern basis.

(ii) Consolidated entity

As at 31 October 2018, the Consolidated entity had a net working capital deficiency of $12,217,994 (2017: $6,966,666 deficiency) and net assets of $180,171,403 (2017: $174,991,304). In addition, the Consolidated entity recorded a net profit for the year of $5,180,099 (2017: $5,286,866) and positive operating cash flows of $14,502,283 (2017: $9,252,007).

The Company has completed the execution of the development masterplan to build a multi-storey car park and refurbish the existing facilities except for minor works on the Atrium Bar and Infinity Lounge. A consequence of this project is that excess operating cash flow has been utilised to fund the initial stages of the masterplan, resulting in the net working capital deficiency. The nature of the gaming industry is such that the Company generates significant cash flows on a short term basis, with limited working capital investment required. In addition to this, the Company has access to a $10,000,000 working capital facility with Westpac Banking Corporation and at 31 October 2018 $8,000,000 of this facility has been drawn down.

The Directors have prepared the next financial year's cash flow forecasts and are comfortable that the Consolidated entity will be able to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due. Accordingly, the Directors have prepared the financial report on a going concern basis in the belief that the Consolidated entity will realise its assets and settle its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business and for at least the amounts stated in the financial report.

Accordingly, no adjustment has been made to the financial report relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or to the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Consolidated entity not continue as a going concern.

3 Significant accounting policies

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these consolidated financial statements, and have been applied consistently by the consolidated entity and the Company.

(a) Basis of consolidation

(i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Consolidated entity. Control exists when the Consolidated entity has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. In assessing control, potential voting rights that currently are exercisable are taken into account. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. The accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed when necessary to align them with the policies adopted by the Consolidated entity.

(ii) Transactions eliminated on consolidation

Intra-group balances, and any unrealised income and expenses arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

(iii) Amalgamation reserve

An amalgamation reserve in members' funds is utilised for amalgamations with other registered clubs. The amount presented is equal to the fair value of the net assets of the club acquired. The individual assets and liabilities acquired are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position. This policy is effective for amalgamations occurring after 1 November 2010.

(b) Financial instruments

(i) Non-derivative financial assets

Financial assets are recognised initially on the date at which the consolidated entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

The consolidated entity derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows on the financial asset in a transaction in which substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred. Any interest in transferred financial assets that is created or retained by the consolidated entity is recognised as a separate asset or liability.

The consolidated entity has the following categories of non-derivative financial assets: loans and receivables, and cash and cash equivalents.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment losses (see note 3(h)).

Loans and receivables comprise cash and trade and other receivables and call deposits with maturities greater than three months from the acquisition date that are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in their fair value.

(ii) Non-derivative financial liabilities

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash balances and call deposits with maturities of three months or less from the acquisition date that are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in their fair value, and are used by the Consolidated entity in the management of its short-term commitments.

Financial liabilities are recognised initially on the date at which the Consolidated entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. The Consolidated entity derecognises a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged, cancelled or expire.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the statement of financial position when, and only when, the Consolidated entity has a legal right to offset the amounts and intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

The Consolidated entity has the following categories of non-derivative financial liabilities.

Other financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition these financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.

Other financial liabilities comprise bank overdrafts, loans and borrowings and trade and other payables.

Loans and borrowings and trade and other payables are recognised initially at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, these financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost with any difference between cost and redemption value being recognised in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income over the period of the borrowings on an effective interest rate.

Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Consolidated entity's cash management are included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the statement of cash flows.

(c) Property, plant and equipment

(i) Recognition and measurement

Items of property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset. Purchased software that is integral to the functionality of the related equipment is capitalised as part of that equipment.

When parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Any gains and losses on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment (calculated as the difference between the net proceeds from disposal and the carrying amount of the item) is recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Subsequent costs

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the consolidated entity. Ongoing repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

(iii) Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated over the depreciable amount, which is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its residual value.

Depreciation is recognised in profit or loss over the estimated useful lives of each part of an item of property, plant and equipment, since this most closely reflects the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the asset. Leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and their useful lives unless it is reasonably certain that the consolidated entity will obtain ownership by the end of the lease term. Land is not depreciated.

For the year ended 31 October 2018

The depreciation methods and estimated depreciation rates for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

	Depreciation rates	Depreciation methods
Leasehold improvements	33.30%	Straight line
Buildings	2.50%	Straight line
Furniture and fittings, plant and equipment	10 - 66.67%	Diminishing value
Poker machines	20 - 40%	Diminishing value
Assets under lease/hire purchase	25%	Straight line

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each financial year-end and adjusted if appropriate.

(d) Intangible assets

Poker machine entitlements

Poker machine entitlements have infinite useful lives given they have no expiry date. They are measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefits embodied in the specific asset to which it relates. All other expenditure is recognised in profit or loss as incurred. Poker machine entitlements have indefinite useful lives as they have no expiry date. Accordingly, such intangible assets are not amortised but are systematically tested for impairment at each reporting date.

(e) Investment property

Investment property is property held either to earn rental income or for capital appreciation or for both, but not for sale in the ordinary course of business, use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes. Investment property is measured at cost on initial recognition and subsequently at fair value with any change therein recognised in profit or loss. Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the investment property.

When the use of a property changes such that it is reclassified as property, plant and equipment, its fair value at the date of reclassification becomes its cost for subsequent accounting.

(f) Leased assets

Leases in terms of which the consolidated entity assumes substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Upon initial recognition the leased asset is measured at an amount equal to the lower of its fair value and the present value of the minimum lease payments. Subsequent to initial recognition, the asset is accounted for in accordance with the accounting policy applicable to that asset.

Other leases are classified as operating leases and the leased assets are not recognised in the consolidated entity's statement of financial position.

(g) Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value. The cost of inventories is based on the first-in first-out principle, and includes expenditure incurred in acquiring the inventories and other costs incurred in bringing them to their existing location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and selling expenses.

(h) Impairment

(i) Financial assets

A financial asset not carried at fair value through profit or loss is assessed at each reporting date to determine whether there is objective evidence that it is impaired. A financial asset is impaired if objective evidence indicates that a loss event has occurred after the initial recognition of the asset, and that the loss event had a negative effect on the estimated future cash flows of that asset that can be estimated reliably.

Objective evidence that financial assets are impaired can include default or delinquency by a debtor, restructuring of an amount due to the consolidated entity on terms that the consolidated entity would not consider otherwise, indications that a debtor or issuer will enter bankruptcy, economic conditions that correlate with defaults.

The consolidated entity considers evidence of impairment for receivables at both a specific asset and collective level. All individually significant receivables are assessed for specific impairment. All individually significant receivables found not to be specifically impaired are then collectively assessed for any impairment that has been incurred but not yet identified.

An impairment loss in respect of a financial asset measured at amortised cost is calculated as the difference between its carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the asset's original effective interest rate. Losses are recognised in profit or loss and reflected in an allowance account against receivables. Interest on the impaired asset continues to be recognised through the unwinding of the discount. When a subsequent event causes the amount of impairment loss to decrease, the decrease in impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss.

(ii) Non-financial assets

The carrying amounts of the consolidated entity's non-financial assets, other than investment property, inventories and deferred tax assets, are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. Indefinite live intangible assets are tested annually for impairment.

The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the greater of its fair value less costs to sell and value in use, being the depreciated replacement cost of the asset. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (a "cash-generating unit" or "CGU").

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or its CGU exceeds its estimated recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses recognised in respect of CGUs are allocated to reduce the carrying amounts of the other assets in the unit (group of units) on a pro rata basis.

Impairment losses recognised in prior periods are assessed at each reporting date for any indications that the loss has decreased or no longer exists. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

(i) Employee benefits

(i) Defined contribution plans

A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which an entity pays fixed contributions into a separate entity and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further amounts. Obligations for contributions to defined contribution plans are recognised as an employee benefit expense in profit or loss in the periods during which services are rendered by employees.

(ii) Other long-term employee benefits

The consolidated entity's net obligation in respect of long-term employee benefits other than defined benefit plans is the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods plus related on-costs; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value, and the fair value of any related assets is deducted. The discount rate is the yield at the reporting date on government bonds that have maturity dates approximating the terms of the consolidated entity's obligations.

(iii) Short-term benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related service is provided.

(j) Provisions

A provision is recognised if, as a result of a past event, the consolidated entity has a present legal or constructive obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability.

The consolidated entity operates a loyalty program where customers accumulate points for dollars spent. The provision represents the current estimate of future cash outflows that will result from future redemption of unredeemed points as at year end.

Make good provision

In accordance with the consolidated entity's leases of premises, the consolidated entity must restore leased premises to their original condition. Because of the long-term nature of the liability, the greatest uncertainty in estimating the provision is the costs that will ultimately be incurred.

The provision is the best estimate of the present value of the expenditure required to settle the make good obligation at the reporting date, based on current market conditions. Future restoration costs are reviewed annually and any changes are reflected in the present value of the make good provision at the end of the reporting period.

(k) Revenue

Goods sold and services rendered

Revenue from the sale of goods comprises revenue earned from the provision of food, beverage and other goods, and is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer.

For the year ended 31 October 2018

Revenue from services rendered comprises revenue from gaming facilities together with other services provided to members and patrons of the consolidated entity, and is recognised through profit or loss when the services are provided. No revenue is recognised if there are significant uncertainties regarding recovery of the consideration due or the reliable measurement of costs incurred or to be incurred, there is risk of return of goods or there is continuing management involvement with the goods.

Commissions

When the consolidated entity acts in the capacity of an agent rather than as the principal in a transaction, the revenue recognised is the net amount of commission made by the Consolidated entity.

Grant revenue

Grants are recognised as income when there is reasonable assurance they will be received by the Company and the Company has complied with the conditions associated with the grant.

(l) Lease payments

Payments made under operating leases are recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives received are recognised as an integral part of the total lease expense, over the term of the lease.

Minimum lease payments made under finance leases are apportioned between the finance expense and the reduction of the outstanding liability. The finance expense is allocated to each period during the lease term so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

(m) Finance income and finance costs

Finance income comprises interest income on cash and cash equivalents. Interest income is recognised as it accrues in profit or loss, using the effective interest method.

Finance costs comprise interest expense on loans and borrowings. Borrowing costs that are not directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or productions of a qualifying asset are recognised in profit or loss using the effective interest method.

(n) Tax

(i) Company

The Company is exempt from income tax under Taxation Ruling 97/22 as the Bulldogs Rugby League Club Limited is regarded as being established for the encouragement of a game and sport.

(ii) Consolidated entity

a) Current tax

Current tax is the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

The measurement of deferred tax reflects the tax consequences that could follow the manner in which the consolidated entity expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to temporary differences when they reverse, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax liabilities and assets, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realised simultaneously.

A deferred tax asset is recognised for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

c) Tax exposure

In determining the amount of current and deferred tax the consolidated entity takes into account the impact of uncertain tax positions and whether additional taxes and interest may be due. This assessment relies on estimates and assumptions and may involve a series of judgements about future events. New information may become available that causes the consolidated entity to change its judgement regarding the adequacy of existing tax liabilities; such changes to tax liabilities will impact tax expense in the period that such a determination is made.

(o) Goods and services tax

Revenue, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST), except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the taxation authority. In these circumstances, the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense.

Receivables and payables are stated with the amount of GST included. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) is included as a current asset or liability in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are included in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO are classified as operating cash flows.

(p) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted

A number of new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations are effective for annual periods beginning after 1 November 2016, and have not been applied in preparing these financial statements. Those which may be relevant to the Company are set out below. The Company does not plan to adopt these standards early.

AASB 9 Financial Instruments (2014)

AASB 9 replaces the existing guidance in AASB 139 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement. AASB 9 includes revised guidance on the classification and measurement of financial instruments, a new expected credit loss model for calculating impairment on financial assets, and new general hedge accounting requirements. It also carries forward the guidance on recognition and derecognition of financial instruments from AASB 139.

AASB 9 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019, with early adoption permitted.

The Company has considered the impact on its financial instruments and financial assets and does not expect a material impact.

AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

AASB 15 establishes a comprehensive framework for determining whether, how much and when revenue is recognised. It replaces existing revenue recognition guidance, including AASB 118 Revenue, AASB 111 Construction Contracts and AASB Interpretation 13 Customer Loyalty Programmes.

AASB 15 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019, with early adoption permitted. The Company is correctly assessing the potential impact of the new standard on its existing revenue streams. Given the nature of its revenues, it is not expected to have a material impact. Given the nature of the Consolidated entity's material revenue streams are predominantly cash-based, and recognised at the point of sales, with limited residual performance obligation, the Consolidated entity does not anticipate a material impact on its financial statements.

AASB 16 Leases

AASB 16 removes the classification of leases as either operating lease or finance leases - for the lessee - effectively treating all leases as finance leases. Short-term leases (less than 12 months) and leases of low-value assets (such as personal computers) are exempt from the lease accounting requirements. There are also changes in accounting over the life of the lease. In particular, companies will recognise a front-loaded pattern of expenses for most leases, even when they pay constant rentals.

AASB 16 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019, with early adoption permitted where AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers is adopted at the same time.

The Company has limited arrangements which meet the definition of an operating lease and would require recognition under the new AASB 16 Leases Standard. The Company will continue to monitor the arrangements in place and any new arrangements entered into to ensure they are accounted for in accordance with the new accounting standard from the effective date.

After taking into account discontinued operations, the consolidated profit after tax for the year ended 31 October 2018 was $5,108,099 (2017: $5,286,866).

26 Fair value measurement recognised in the Statement of Financial Position

The fair value measurement disclosures use a three-tier value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in measuring fair values. The fair value hierarchy is comprised of the following levels:

- Level 1 – fair values measured using quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical instruments;
- Level 2 – fair values measured using directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices) observable inputs, other than quoted prices included in Level 1; and
- Level 3 – fair values measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The fair value of investment property was determined by external, independent property valuers, having appropriate recognised professional qualifications and recent experience in the location and category of the property being valued. The fair value measurement for all of the investment properties has been categorised as a Level 2 fair value given the valuation methodology used by the valuer is the direct comparison approach.

Robert Simpson #377 – Why can't we play our home games at Belmore.

ANZ has been allocated Government funding to be demolished and rebuilt as a purpose built rectangular stadium and the design stages show dividers to utilise the lower bowl better.

ANZ will be out of action for a few years due to the upgrade and thus will be preparing to play at Belmore.

Once ANZ has been completed we will go back to ANZ but will continue to play traditional games at Belmore.

Col Peet #952 – Questions how many board members go to other grade games – from what he had seen, he believes it to only be approximately 2% of board attendance.

RD apologised due to preparation for today's AGM and if reappointed shall endeavour to arrange for a greater Board representation.

Ray Dury #87 – Thank you for publishing # in annual report. With the light rail, the northern end of the ground – will that have any effect on BSG.
