BULLDOGS RUGBY LEAGUE CLUB DEVELOPMENT SQUADS - 2018 INFORMATION PACKS

Development Squad – Medical Waiver Form

(Medical Waiver Period – November 1st, 2017 to October 31st, 2018)

Unless contracted to the Bulldogs Rugby League Club and medical insurance is part of that contract, players and their families are reminded that medical insurance is the responsibility of the player and/or his family or carer. The Bulldogs will accept no responsibility for the costs of injuries incurred whilst players are participating in matches or training with the Bulldogs Development Squads. By attending training and playing for the Bulldogs Development Squads (either trials or competition matches) it is understood that the player and his family fully understand and agree to accept these conditions.

All development squad players* and their parents or carer will be required to sign this Medical Waiver Form (found at the end of this information pack), indemnifying the Bulldogs Rugby League Club for injuries occurred and medical costs accrued during training for development squads, or playing matches for the Bulldogs (either trials or competition matches).

Players who have medical costs covered as part of their contract, are reminded that the Bulldogs Rugby League Club will only cover the costs of injuries that are sustained by the player whilst training and playing with the Bulldogs Rugby League Club Development Squads. Expenses for injuries incurred playing in other competitions or other teams, will not be paid for by the Bulldogs Rugby League Club.

Having adequate medical insurance is not unlike having car insurance. We do not go out to have an accident whilst driving, nor do we go out to try and get injured whilst playing rugby league. But accidents do happen and they can be costly if you are not adequately covered. The Bulldogs Rugby League Club suggests that all players who do not have adequate Medical and Hospital cover seriously consider taking out a policy for children playing a sport like Rugby League as the costs associated with paying for injuries can be quite high, and unless contracted and agreed to by the Bulldogs Rugby League Club, those costs will not be met by the Bulldogs Rugby League Club.

* Development Squad Players refers to Bulldogs Under 13, Bulldogs Under 14, Bulldogs Under 15, Bulldogs Under 16 (Harold Matthews), Bulldogs Under 17, Bulldogs Under 18 (SG Ball), Bulldogs Under 19 and NYC Trialists.
